Project “Das Memberg”

The small coffee and concept store was captured using natural light to preserve its urban, moody atmosphere. Punchy colors and thoughtful compositions highlight the character and unique style of the space, creating images that feel welcoming, dynamic, and full of energy.

Project “Tuscany Villa”

Set among olive groves and vineyards, this historic stone villa blends Tuscan charm with modern refinement. The photography captures crisp, clean images with sharp lines, highlighting carefully restored details and sunlit surfaces. Natural light dances across fresh, matte colors, creating depth and emphasizing texture. Every frame balances rustic elegance with contemporary sophistication, reflecting the warm, effortless Italian lifestyle.

Project “Alpine Apartment”

Situated in the heart of the Alps, this apartment combines minimalist design with breathtaking mountain views. Photography focuses on available light only, preserving the natural ambiance indoors and outdoors exactly as it appears. Soft, bloomy highlights and subtle fading emphasize the gentle transitions of sunlight, while clean lines and simple geometry reflect the interior’s understated elegance. The images maintain a true-to-life aesthetic, with no over-editing, highlighting the space, the light, and the serene alpine atmosphere.

A carefully captured luxury villa by the Baltic Sea, blending Mediterranean inspired aesthetics with natural colors, authentic lighting, and timeless design.

Featuring handcrafted interiors, curated decorations, and a genuine love for detail, every space reflects warmth, elegance, and character. Surrounded by unspoiled natural beauty, the property showcases refined style and a harmonious connection to its surroundings in every frame.

Project “Bavarian Winter Hotel”

Surrounded by a snow-covered Bavarian landscape, the hotel is photographed in both daylight and nighttime conditions. Day shots focus on natural light and clean highlights, capturing the clarity and calm of the winter scenery. Night images use warm, bluish tones to create contrast and atmosphere, emphasizing the hotel's presence within the landscape. Together, the images highlight the seasonal character, mood, and architectural identity of the hotel.

Project “Classic Hotel”

Using natural and ambient light, the interiors preserve the authentic colors and character of the space. Stitched 180 degree compositions capture expansive views, emphasizing geometry, materials, and atmosphere. The resulting images are cool yet inviting, highlighting the hotel's timeless elegance while maintaining a natural and approachable aesthetic.

Project “Zirben Holz Apartment”

The apartments were captured with a super bright, soft aesthetic, featuring blown-out highlights and an almost neutral white palette. Photography preserves the character of the space while emphasizing true-to-life colors and material quality. The resulting images are airy, clean, and calm, highlighting the warmth and texture of the interiors while maintaining a natural, understated elegance.

Project “Summer Pool”

The pool and surrounding space were captured to emphasize water, light, and contrast, highlighting the character of the environment. Photography focuses on creating a space you want to spend time in, with vibrant summer tones, playful reflections, and airy compositions. The resulting images balance relaxation and energy, showcasing both material quality and atmosphere while maintaining a natural, inviting aesthetic.

Project “Old but Gold”

This series celebrates true analog photography, blending modern and vintage aesthetics to create images that benefit from the best of both worlds. Grain, texture, and subtle imperfections highlight the unique character of film, while thoughtful composition and light preserve clarity and atmosphere. Each frame showcases a timeless quality, offering a distinct, one-of-a-kind perspective that stands apart from digital imagery.
